

Texas A&I Alumni Association

Nominations are currently being solicited for The Texas A&I Alumni Association's Distinguished Alumni Award for the year 2020.

Purpose of award:

The award salutes the achievements of outstanding alumni whose personal lives, professional achievements, and community service exemplify the objectives of their alma mater. The award is commemorated by the presentation of inscribed plaque at the Annual Texas A&I Alumni Association Homecoming Awards luncheon.

Eligible nominees:

All graduates of our Alma Mater, who have received a bachelor's degree, or an advanced degree, and former students (who have attended full-time as a degree seeking student and satisfactorily passed a minimum of four semester) are eligible for consideration of the award. However, current members of the Board of Trustees, current employees of the University, and current officers and members of the Executive Board of the Alumni Association are not eligible for the award.

Method of nomination:

The Board of Trustees encourages the submission of eligible nominations through the completion and return of the form included on the following pages by July 31, 2020. The form is also available for download on the Texas A&I Alumni Association website via the following link: <http://www.TexasAandIUniversity.org>. This form alone will be used by the Board of Trustees in determining individuals to receive the Award, and, therefore, should be filled in as completely as possible. The recipients will be determined by August 31, 2020.

Method of award recipient selection:

The President of the Board will appoint a Selection Committee to review all nominations and recommend a slate of candidates to the full membership of the Board of Trustees.

Announcement and recognition:

Following the selection of recipients, a public announcement will be made. The awards are presented on the occasion of the Alumni Homecoming luncheon, typically held in October of each year.
